

SUMMER FOOD SERVICE PROGRAM FOR CHILDREN (SFSP) NOTIFICATION TO THE COMMUNITY FORM

This form is required to be completed and submitted with the application.

All Sponsors of the Summer Food Service Program for Children must publicly announce the availability of the Program before beginning meal service (7CFR, Part 225.15 (e)). Each type of meal service (breakfast, lunch, supper, and snack) must be clearly advertised as to the date, time and locations where meals will be served. This announcement must be made with the media serving the area from which the Program will draw its attendance. The media used may be general distribution print, radio, television or website. All the required information must be provided to the media for publishing or airing, including the USDA nondiscrimination statement, procedure for filing a complaint and address to submit a complaint to. Announcements made in restricted media, such as newsletters or on cable television, are not acceptable unless approved by the State agency. Documentation of the sponsor's release to the media must be maintained by Sponsor.
